

Program SELSI event in Malmö, May 23, 2024

8.30 – 9.00 Registration.

9.00 – 9.15 Conference opening. Dyslexiförbundet.

9.15 – 9.30 Presentation of Malmö folkhögskola, and nonformal adult education in Sweden. Malmö folkhögskola.

9.30 – 9.45 The SELSI project, background, and objectives. Tatjana Knapp, Project manager from the organization Zavod Risa, Slovenia.

9.45 – 9.50 Short break.

9.50 – 10.30 Talking books – Production, guidelines, and voices. Ulrica Lejbro, Specialist in Talking Books at the Swedish Agency for Accessible Media.

10.30–11.00 Fika break.

11.00 – 12.00 User involvement in the development of the SELSI recommendations for Spoken Easy Language. Test results from Slovenia, Latvia, and Sweden. Panel discussion about what makes speech easy to understand, with end-users. Stefan Johansson, Begripsam (Sweden), Tatjana Knapp, Zavod Risa

(Slovenia) and Gunta Anča, Viegļās valodas aģentūra (Latvia).

12.00 – 13.15 Lunch break – There is a restaurant at the school.

13.15 – 13.55 Listening to text during studies. Eva Wennås Brante, Professor in Educational Pedagogy, Malmö University.

13.55 – 14.00 Short break.

14.00 – 14.40 Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) – strategies and tools to support spoken language. Marika Schütz, Speech Language Pathologist, MSc.

14.40 – 15.15 Let more voices be heard. How to include people with disabilities in everyday radio programs. Madeleine Fritsch Lärka, journalist at the Swedish Radio.

15.15 – 15.45. Fika break.

15.45 – 16.15 Developing Guidelines for Spoken Easy Language: Challenges and Solutions. Dr. Laura Vilkaitė-Lozdienė and Agnė Župerkaitė, Vilnius University.

16.15 – 16.30 Closing session. Tatjana Knapp, Zavod Risa, Ester Hedberg and Sara Rydin, Dyslexiförbundet.

